WALTON LODGE FARM ESTATE

Most of our produce is from our family farm – Walton Lodge Farm Estate, less than 4 miles away. On our 360-acre farm, we specialise in rare breed animals. We have one of the largest herds of Belted Galloway cattle in England. We also breed Dorset sheep, free-range Berkshire pigs, and fresh free-range eggs. Much of our fresh fruit and vegetables are also grown and picked from our gardens when in season. We pride ourselves on having low food wastage and sustainable, farm-to-fork produce.

Fillet

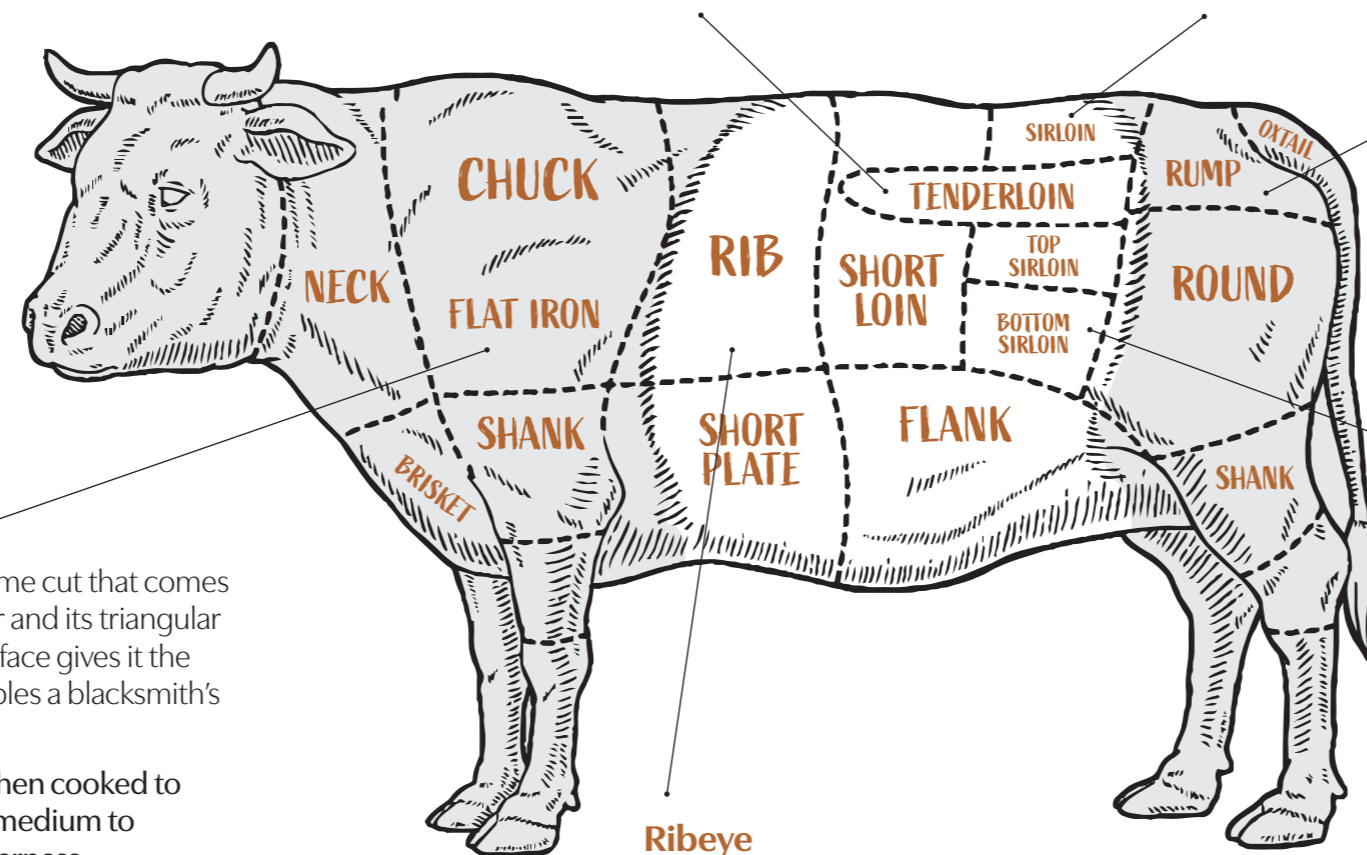

Also known as tenderloin, this is the ultimate steak if you're looking for tenderness. Cut from the lower middle of the back, it should have a buttery texture on cutting and should be a leaner option.

Ideally, it is served medium-rare or rare, but as always, we will adjust it to your liking.

Sirloin

Sirloin is officially the UK's favourite cut! It comes from the back part of a cow, near the rear legs. Whilst not as tender as a fillet, it is still a really tender cut and it is lean, juicy and flavoursome.

Best served medium-rare for the best balance of tenderness and flavour.

Flat Iron

This is a flavoursome cut that comes from the shoulder and its triangular shape and flat surface gives it the name as it resembles a blacksmith's flat iron.

This cut is best when cooked to medium-rare or medium to maintain its tenderness.

Ribeye

This is one of the most popular steaks globally, and for very good reason. Otherwise known as entrecôte or scotch fillet, this cut has done little work and has a lovely tender texture.

With the marbled fat running through, this steak is best served medium to medium-rare.

Rump

Sourced from the hindquarters of the animal, this is a flavourful choice for those who prefer robust flavours. It is not as tender as sirloin, but it has a great meaty texture and a rich beefy flavour.

This steak is best cooked medium-rare to medium.

Bavette

This is a flavourful cut taken from the bottom sirloin. Cooked to perfection, it boasts a tender texture and rich marbling.

For the best taste experience, we recommend you enjoy it medium-rare.

KNOW YOUR STEAK

At Cocina at Casa we offer a variety of prime cuts to satisfy all palates. For a perfect selection, think texture first. If you want something buttery soft, opt for the fillet. Something with more substance? The ribeye is your go-to! Next, ponder the flavour. The ribeye stands out for its rich, beefy taste.

And finally, think about how you like it cooked. We offer suggestions but the choice is yours.
